A
GLOSSARY
OF
North Country Words,
IN USE.

FROM AN ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT, IN THE LIBRARY OF JOHN GEORGE LAMBTON, ESQ. M. P.

EDITED BY
JOHN TROTTER BROCKETT, F. S. A.
LONDON AND NEWCASTLE UPON TYNE.

⌘ GENTLEMEN desirous of having Copies are requested to send their names to E. CHARNLEY, Newcastle, the publisher, as the impression will be limited to the precise number subscribed for.

1824.

THIS Glossary is offered to the public as an object not devoid of interest. The neglect of County Historians in not recording the local words, peculiar to particular districts, is universally lamented. Several of those in the Northern Counties are highly expressive; and it is astonishing how many of the phrases occurring in Shakespeare, Beaumont and Fletcher, and Ben Jonson, and now totally disused in other parts of the kingdom, are still preserved in the remotest places of Northumberland. The true meaning of these it has been the endeavour of the Compiler correctly to ascertain, and it is believed he has been successful in most of his explanations. The compilation, however, is not the result of any previous study, nor did it occasion any particular labour.—The materials were collected solely for amusement, in frequent communications with different parts, and every thing particular was noted down from time to time as it occurred. The whole manuscript has been carefully revised by the Editor, and Mr. Lambton, with his accustomed liberality, has permitted its publication.

The work will be printed in Crown 8vo., uniform with the other publications of the Editor.
